

What drives you?

What matters most to you?

List your top five values.

What motivates you?

Describe at least one thing that you could get excited about and one thing that you would rather avoid.

Ways you could be misunderstood by others?

Describe how others might get the wrong impression of you.

When really you are...

Describe your true intentions in terms of your values and motivations.