

What drives you?

What matters most to you?

List your top five values.

What motivates you?

Describe at least one thing that you could get excited about and one that you would rather avoid. What values, beliefs, and motivations may be driving you?

Ways you could be misunderstood by others?

Describe how others might get the wrong impression of you.

When really you are...

Describe your true intentions in terms of your values and motivations.